The Two-Dimensional Studio Arts Certificate of Achievement offers the student choices in the pursuit of a career in the visual arts. This certificate provides an opportunity for the student to continue on toward earning an AA-T degree in fine arts that aligns with existing undergraduate programs in the CSU and UC systems. The student will study foundational courses such as two-dimensional design, drawing, and painting. The goal of this certificate is to offer students a range of courses that define various aspects of culture and the physical world.
