

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE

The ESL Department consists of two areas: Credit ESL and Noncredit (AENG) ESL.

English as a Second Language (ESL) is the study of English designed for non-native speakers of English. As the High Desert has become very diverse both culturally and linguistically, the need for language and cultural orientation has grown. Although not recognized as a separate major, ESL is a necessary component for success in any field for the non-native student. Non-native speakers of English need to develop academic language skill necessary to accomplish their educational goals. The ESL Department at VVC seeks to help these students develop these skills.

Areas of interest may include

- Vocational education
- Certificate program
- Associate's degree
- Certificate of Competency
- Transfer to a four year university

This program is an intensive English language program for beginners of English and for those in the higher levels of English as a Second Language. The topics also include citizenship classes, computer and workplace literacy classes. These courses are offered for credit and non-credit.
