

RELIGIOUS STUDIES

The academic study of religion is an objective, factual, interdisciplinary study of the texts, symbols, myths, rituals, ideas, and values of the world's many religious traditions. Students are encouraged to view religion multiculturally as a means of understanding more deeply the spiritual dimensions of human nature, history, and society. Study in this field prepares students for life in a multicultural society and provides practice in such valuable skills as empathetic reading and listening, critical reflection, and descriptive and analytical writing.

Program Learning Outcomes

Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) are statements of the kind of learning a program hopes a student will achieve. The PLOs describe the knowledge, skills, problem-solving, communication and values that apply to all certificates and/or degrees within that program.

Upon completion of this program, students should be able to:

- Discuss and apply the central theoretical concepts and methods of the discipline of Religious Studies.
- Critically analyze religious conceptions and behavior in a variety of historical, social, and cultural contexts.
- Discuss works of major religious importance.
- Discuss the role of religious understanding in proposed solutions to social problems, and the exercise of responsible national and global citizenship.
